SHORT TITLE: —	CASE NUMBER:
-------------------	--------------

WHAT IS A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER?

1. Failure to have ignition interlock devices installed within 30 days of the date of this order.
2. Failure to return completed Ignition Interlock Installation Verification (form ID-110) to the court or probation department (as indicated on the reverse) within the time limit specified in this order.
3. Failure to comply three or more times with any requirement for the maintenance or calibration of the ignition interlock devices.
4. Failure to comply with any court order.
5. Default on any payment plan arranged with the installer or ordered by the court, resulting in failure to comply herewith, absent a showing in court of good cause.
6. If defendant has a valid driver's license, driving any vehicle without an ignition interlock device except as provided below and except for employer-owned vehicles required to be operated within the course and scope of employment. A motor vehicle owned by a business entity that is wholly or partly owned or controlled by defendant is not a motor vehicle owned by an employer subject to the exemption.
7. Failure to maintain current license and registration on any vehicle owned by defendant.
8. Failure to notify any person who rents, leases, or loans a motor vehicle to defendant of the restriction imposed by this order.
9. Requesting or soliciting any person to blow into an ignition interlock device or to start a motor vehicle equipped with the device for the purpose of providing defendant with an operable motor vehicle.
10. Tampering with or circumventing the operation of an ignition interlock device.

Under Vehicle Code section 23575 only, it is an affirmative defense to Violation Numbers 7, 8, and 9 if defendant can show that he or she leased, rented, or borrowed a vehicle for emergency use when no other feasible alternative was available, or for a bona fide business purpose when away from defendant's regular place of business.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF YOU VIOLATE THIS ORDER?

Under Vehicle Code section 23575, if a defendant fails to provide proof of installation within the ordered time limit, absent a showing of good cause, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles.

YOUR RIGHTS

1. If you are required to install ignition interlock devices pursuant to Vehicle Code section 23575, and you have a medical condition that you believe prevents you from breathing with sufficient strength to activate the devices, you have the right to present a physician's statement to the court documenting the condition and to have the court determine whether the medical condition does make use of the devices medically impossible.
2. If your driving privilege has been revoked or suspended pursuant to Vehicle Code section 23575, and it is restored before the end of the period ordered herein for installation of the ignition interlock devices, you may petition the court to review whether continued restriction is necessary.

Defendant: Call the ignition interlock device installer within 48 hours of this order and arrange for the installation of the device(s). The court will provide you with a list of certified installers.
